Textiles Training a Success

Liz Glover, Jewels 4 God International's Director of Textiles, trained Bombay Teen Challenge (BTC). Several thousand dollars worth of patterns were donated and over $6,500 in fabric, industrial sewing machines, and other supplies. Textiles training and supplies ($800) were also provided for the Deepika Social Welfare Society in Calcutta.

Daughters of the King Party was Powerful!

We were joined in Bombay by Christy English (left photo below), Women's Ministries Director for the West Florida District and Jewels 4 God International Board Member, along with 5 women from First Assembly of God in Crestview, Florida. Over 60 women and 130 girls rescued from the brothels were taught that they are daughters of the King and treated like royalty. They were pampered with tea parties, sweet treats (2nd to left), t-shirts, gifts, and adorned with beautiful crowns. Each one received a personal photograph (2nd to right) wearing their crown and a robe that was placed in a frame that they handcrafted. The women and girls loved it (right photo).

Jewels 4 God is planning on making the Daughters of the King Parties an annual event with Christy to ministries we have trained that are reaching out to women and girls. If you would like to have a Daughters of the King Party at your women's or girl's ministry please contact us.

Second Phase Training Completed for Bombay Teen Challenge

Michelle Zello did some advanced training for women who were first trained in 2005 and also trained several new girls how to make handcrafted jewelry. As a result of the success of the jewelry micro enterprise and other textile and leather products Bombay Teen Challenge has received a grant from a US corporation to build a beautiful 5,000 square foot vocational building that will be completed in March 2008.

Thanks from Calcutta, India

"Dear Michelle and Tim - thank you so much for coming our way, for teaching skills with a sincere burden and prayers for our ladies. It was indeed an enjoyable experience for all of us. We loved the way to taught, interacted, and blended with our people and culture. God richly bless you as you travel to many different places and empower people."

Jamaica Teen Challenge Launches Website - www.teenchallengejamaica.net

The website states, "Tim and his wife, came to us to train our men in Jewelry making. It was a slow starter but when it took off it went flying. Currently we are selling out of Island Village and Dolphin Cove. We have great expectations for this business and it makes for excellent skills training for our men."&#x201D;

Last Minute Trips to Jamaica and Bolivia

We head to Teen Challenge Jamaica on February 26th through March 3rd to bring more supplies, do second phase jewelry training, help them with pricing and marketing their product, and speak with the management of a the RIU hotel, a large beach front resort to discuss TC Jamaica selling their jewelry there. We will also attend Teen Challenge Jamaica's first graduation of 2008.

From February 26th through March 2nd Bonnie Martin, LGPC, will be providing Professional Christian Counseling training on trauma, abuse, and shame to the staff of the Life Center, a home for abused orphaned boys, at the Children's International Network in Bolivia.

Ponder This -

"It is not very often that we are in complete control of events. There is always the unexpected. Our plans can easily fall apart due to the uncertainty that surrounds the future but God knows all things present and things to come. What we can control is how much of God's involvement we will allow in our daily lives. We can control whether or not we acknowledge Him."
