Rev. Gary Wilkerson
Vice-President of World Challenge, David Wilkerson Ministries

Summary - There is a battle raging every day between what our human nature desires and what God wants. This strategic book will help you discern, disarm, and destroy the deadliest weapon our human nature uses in the conflict.

Excerpt from Chapter 2 - "...Perhaps no man in history had more to be proud of than Ben Franklin. Yet, Franklin understood the nature of the beast of pride. He once said, "In reality there is perhaps none of our natural passions so hard to subdue as pride. Disguise it, struggle with it, beat it down, stifle it, mortify it as much as one pleases, it is still alive, and will every now and then peep out and show itself. For even if I could conceive that I had completely overcome it I would probably be proud of my humility."

Dr. Martin R. Dehaan (1891-1965) was an American Bible teacher, pastor, author, and physician. He used to say, "Humility is something we should constantly pray for, yet never thank God that we have."

Someone once said that "pride is the dandelion of the soul. Its root goes deep; only a little left behind sprouts again. Its seeds lodge in the tiniest encouraging cracks. And it flourishes in good soil: The danger of pride is that it feeds on goodness." As a matter of fact, it is the only sin that feeds on goodness.

Pride is the most subtle, destructive, and unrelenting weapon our human nature uses to battle against God."
