Serbia Teen Challenge Off to a Great Start!

Sasa, the Director of Teen Challenge Serbia, has informed us that they have sold $4,000 worth of jewelry since they were trained in October (2007). What a great start! They are reinvesting 90% of their sales back into the business to purchase more supplies. Their jewelry business will help bring in more resources to sustain their powerful ministry to rescue broken women from drug addiction and prostitution.

Sri Lanka Training Rescheduled

The dates for training the older teenage girls who are orphaned in Sri Lanka have been reset for April 11-22, 2008.

Heading to India

Michelle, our two children - Rachel and Luke, and I will be departing for India on January 4th for six weeks until February 10 where we will be training women trapped in the brothels of Calcutta, former heroin addicts in Lucknow, and launching the textiles training with Liz Glover to women rescued from the brothels of Bombay. We will also spend 6 days in Jaipur at the home of one of our suppliers where Michelle will learn new jewelry making techniques by Bengali artisans.

Ponder This...

"The mark of true humility is when nothing is expected, asked, hoped for, or demanded in return for acts of service. The greatest and most difficult act of humility is voluntarily taking the blame and suffering the consequences of someone else's mistakes."

Have a Blessed Christmas!

And they will be mine, says the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spares his own son that serves him (Malachi 3:17).
